

Oakmeadians RFC Mini Festival 2020

PROPOSED ITINERARY

GENERAL INFORMATION

The event is conveniently scheduled to take place during the school Easter break to guarantee the maximum uptake from your club. Your accommodation is at the popular Sandford Holiday Park which has plenty of onsite amenities to keep your group entertained! These include a heated indoor pool, tennis, table tennis, short mat bowls, crazy golf, multisport court for basketball and football, 2 outdoor play areas with a climbing wall and amusement arcade with Tenpin Bowlingo! The parks also offer a variety of restaurants and an excellent evening entertainment program.

This event takes place over the same weekend as the Bournemouth Mini & Junior and there is always a great atmosphere here with touring teams from around the UK.

FRIDAY 17th APRIL 2020

With Friday being a school holiday your group can travel down in the morning and enjoy the indoor pool. You can then check in to your accommodation from 4pm. The remainder of the day and night free to explore the park and use your leisure and entertainment passes.

Burleigh Travel Reception Party

The Burleigh Travel reception party has now become a legendary event to help the tour organiser and their coaches kick off their weekend in style, and will give you a chance to meet up, and socialise with the representatives from the other touring teams and to meet the Burleigh Travel Staff while enjoying complimentary food and drink.

SATURDAY 18th APRIL 2020 – BURLEIGH TRAVEL TOURIST TROPHY

Today will see your teams take part in an event at Oakmeadians Rugby Club in Bournemouth. There will be food and a bar available throughout the day and once the tournament is complete, there will be a formal presentation as the winners climb the “Oakmeadians Steps” to the clubhouse balcony to accept their prizes. Once the presentations have taken place you will return to your accommodation. In the evening you may wish to enjoy the evening entertainment at the holiday park.
